Discussion Dr. Pablo Cardona, associate vice president, Human Resources and Labor Relations, distributed a Human Resources Report Addendum, Appointments. He reviewed the Affirmative Action Quarterly Report.

Dr. Darnell E. Cole, president, noted that the college would contract with search firms to assist in the recruitment process for minority candidates on a national basis. Mr. Earle requested the ratio of Caucasian employees who were replaced by minority employees. Mr. James R. Walsh, interim provost, stated that newly hired faculty members were highly credentialed.

Action Motion approved.
ITEM F.  CHAIRPERSON’S REPORT

Discussion  Chairperson Webber welcomed Ms. Wilson as a new board member. He presented Ms. Bell with a plaque commemorating her term as chairperson of the board and with a resolution:

“Whereas, Jeannette Bell was appointed to the Milwaukee Area Technical College District Board in 1999; and

Whereas, Ms. Bell served as chairperson of the District Board in 2005-06; and

Whereas, during Ms. Bell’s tenure as chairperson, she benefited the college and its students with her guidance, leadership and commitment to the district; and

Whereas, the college, its students and graduates made lasting and significant accomplishments during Ms. Bell’s term as chairperson; and

Whereas, these accomplishments included stability in full-time student enrollments, major increases in online course offerings and enrollments, the growth of bilingual programs, the district expansion of health care programs, the advancement of community partnerships especially through Discovery World/Pier Wisconsin and the center for Energy Conservation and Advanced Manufacturing; and

Whereas, Ms. Bell has been an exemplary representative of the chairperson’s position and District Board at numerous MATC student, employee and community events; therefore

Be It Resolved that the MATC District Board gratefully acknowledges, thanks and honors Ms. Bell for her dedicated service as District Board Chairperson.”
