ALL-USA ACADEMIC TEAM PROGRAM SUMMARY

INTRODUCTION

The All-USA Community and Junior College Academic Team Program is a national honors competition among two-year college students enrolled in associate degree programs. Phi Theta Kappa International Honor Society, in conjunction with the American Association of Community Colleges (AACC) and various corporate sponsors, conducts this annual event.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this program is to recognize scholarly achievements of students enrolled in community, technical and junior colleges. For the purpose of this award, “scholar” is defined as one who excels in the classroom; who has the intellectual curiosity to pursue academic, career and cultural enrichment outside the traditional classroom; who shows evidence of substantial development of talents in academic and technical education; and who has demonstrated an ability to share this development with others.

INFORMATION

For information regarding this competition and on how to apply, see the attached documents.
