Center for Engaged and Service-Learning (CESL)
Carnegie Foundation Self-Study Findings

59,199
Total enrolled students 2013 Annual Report

19,228
32% of students were engaged in the community in 2012-2013.

• 1,078,000 hours in the community
• MATC students contributed $19.4 million worth of service to our community using the 2012 Independentsector.org Value of Volunteer Service in WI ($18 an hour)

Current Outcomes of Carnegie Self-Study
• Course Codes
• Transcript recognition of community engaged learning credits
• Campus Connect (WICC)
• New CESL office
• New CESL focus on community partnerships

Service-Learning

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Total Courses at MATC</th>
<th>Total Depts.</th>
<th>Faculty</th>
<th>Students</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>19%</td>
<td>38%</td>
<td>26%</td>
<td>22%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Service-Learning Students

82%
Agreed – The community participation aspect off the course help me see how course material I learned can be used in everyday life.

71%
Agreed – Participating in the community helped me enhance my leadership skills

Internship and Practicum Students

Agreed - Their experience was beneficial to their professional development 96%

Agreed - Their experience was successful in helping obtain new skills and competencies 89%

Community Partners

77%
The #1 reason these agencies partnered with MATC students – they wanted to influence the training of future employees and professionals

Forms of Community Engaged Learning

Community Service/Volunteerism
Service-Learning
Practicum
Preceptorship
Clinical Internship/Fieldwork Placement
Internship
Apprenticeship
Center for Engaged and Service-Learning (CESL)

MATC: The Community's College Expanding to the Oak Creek Campus
Working to inspire the creation and replication of a healthy, equitable, sustainable community by leveraging the collective strength, local knowledge, expertise, networks and resources of educators, students, community organizations, businesses and community residents within a sustainable radius of each MATC campus.

October 10th Community Summit with Community Partners
November 7th a Co-Creation Event for faculty to create engaged courses with community partners

CESL Information Sessions for Mental Health Partners
Promoting community partnerships to increase community engaged learning experiences for our students

- August 27th 2:00-3:00
- September 3rd 2:00-3:00

Community Coffees (CESL Office in HEC 103J)
Linking community partners with faculty to create community engaged learning projects

- September 19th 10-11:30
- October 17th 10-11:30
- November 14th 10-11:30

Service-Learning 101 (Professional Development Course)
Stipends available for faculty who complete community engaged projects

- October 24th 8-12:30
- November 21st 8-12:30

NEW OFFICE for the CESL
1311 N. 6th Street, Milwaukee, WI 53233
Room 103J

CESL Goals 2014-2016

1. Spring 2015 - Campus-wide training on Campus Connect a new tracking software for all community engaged learning activities at MATC

2. Expand links to Career Pathways, Academic Pathways (Badger/Panther track) and High School matriculation

3. Expand MATC: The Community's College to Mequon Campus 2015-2016

4. Expand MATC: The Community's College to West Allis Campus 2016-2017

5. Continue to develop and promote MATC as a national leader in community engaged learning activities