National Technical Honor Society
FACULTY NOMINATION PROCEDURES

Faculty members who nominate students for the National Technical Honor Society must:

1. Be familiar with the student’s academic efforts.

2. Instruct in the student’s chosen academic program.

3. Complete the Instructor Nomination Form (Faculty members may nominate more than one eligible student from their program).

4. Return the form to the student who is responsible for submitting the completed application packet.

Should you have further questions, please contact HONORS@matc.edu