

CULART-107 Field Experience in Food Service/Hospitality

Course Description: Students work 216 hours as regular employees in a food service facility. The goal of Field Experience is to give students the opportunity to apply, on the job, the skills learned in the classroom and lab and obtain a broad overview of an entire facility.

Requisites:

Complete INTRN-796 With minimum a grade of C. - Must be completed prior to taking this course.

CPLE Requirement:

- Letter from employer (on letterhead) that lists the work duties
- Hours worked
- Position

Total Credits: 1.00

CULART-107 Course Competencies:

1. Work in a Hospitality-Industry-related position that addresses personal goals identified for Field Experience.
2. Prepare food from scratch at an approved place of employment as an integral part of food production required for the business.
3. Show awareness of the value of non-paid participation in extracurricular Hospitality-related events.
4. Compose a summary project paper of your field experience.
5. Describe ways to advance in a Hospitality-related career.
6. Describe available resources to use when planning a Hospitality industry-related business.