Free Grant Money Available for Minority Students

Money is limited!

This money is awarded to eligible students on a first-come, first-served basis.

To be eligible to apply for the Minority Retention Grant (MRG):

- You must be a minority student to apply for this grant. According to the Wisconsin State Legislature, for the purpose of this grant, a minority student is defined as African American, Hispanic, American Indian, or Southeast Asian heritage. Southeast Asian applicants are defined as individuals who were admitted into the United States after December 31, 1975, and who were former citizens of Laos, Vietnam or Cambodia.
- You must be a resident of Wisconsin and be a United States citizen, or a United States permanent resident with an Alien Registration Receipt Card from the United States Department of Homeland Security.
- You must be currently enrolled in a two-year associate degree program.
- You are not eligible for this grant if you have earned a Bachelor's degree.
- You must have completed a minimum of 24 credits in your current program by September 1, 2023. Twelve of these credits must have been taken at MATC, and you must have a 2.30 or better grade-point average in your program.
- You must be enrolled in a minimum of six credits each semester you receive MRG.
- You must have submitted a 2023-24 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).
- You must have Federal Financial Aid eligibility and meet all of the requirements of the financial aid programs.
- Application deadline is January 31, 2024.
