The MATC Financial Aid Department recognizes that our students may have extenuating circumstances that affect their financial situation. If you believe the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) does not reflect an accurate financial picture, you may submit this request to have your FAFSA reviewed. The following are examples of extenuating circumstances:

- loss or reduction of family income,
- divorce or separation of parents,
- recent death of a parent,
- unusual medical and dental expenses (paid out-of-pocket),
- elementary and secondary school costs,
- child-care and dependent-care costs, etc.

A What is needed to start review:

- Must have submitted the 2021-2022 FAFSA and received by MATC's Financial Aid Office. This can be done online at www.fafsa.gov
- This completed form. NOTE: this form and all required documentation must be submitted and reviewed before the last day of classes for the current semester.
- If you did not utilize the IRS Data Retrieval Tool for Student's and Parent's income sections when completing the FAFSA, include a copy of the student's and parents' 2019 Tax Transcripts and W-2 forms.
- A signed and dated statement detailing the circumstance(s) that lead to this request, and any supporting documentation for yours or your family's financial situation. Be specific – provide dates and clearly identify the person to whom the narrative refers.

B. Complete the section of the form that applies to you:

Each section will describe the type of documentation that will be required in addition to what is listed in the "What is needed to start review" section. NOTE: There may be additional documentation that is needed after we review your initial documents submitted.

Reduced Income:

1. Change in parent's marital status- including divorce/separation and loss of parent

Required Documentation: Copy of separation order or divorce decree (if no legal document is available, provide proof of separate residence such as lease(s), mortgage(s), utility bill(s), etc.), or a copy of death certificate/obituary for loss of spouse.

Please circle one of the following: Separated Divorced Widowed

Date marital status changed: _____
MM/DD/YY

2A. Significant income change between 2019 taxes and 2020 taxes

Required Documentation: Copies of 2020 tax return transcripts and 2020 W-2s. Which family member's income changed between 2019 and 2020.

_____ Student
_____ Parent(s)

2B. Significant change in income between 2019 taxed and projected year 2021 income

Required Documentation: Copies of 2020 tax return transcripts and 2020 W-2s, a copy of the last two most recent pay stubs for all jobs worked in 2021, and any other income documentation from 2021. Which family member's income changed between 2019 and 2021.

_____ Student
_____ Parent(s)

Additional Expenses:

3. Paid out-of-pocket medical or dental expenses

Required Documentation: Schedule A or itemized spreadsheet that totals expenses, along with documentation supporting listed expenses not covered by insurance, Health Savings Account, or Flexible Spending Account. Tax returns or tax return transcripts for the year that the medical expense occurred.

4. Private tuition that parent(s) paid for a sibling

Required Documentation: Proof of payments, such as a detailed statement of accounts from that elementary and secondary school (preferred on their letter head).

5. Other –

Required Documentation: Please explain in a signed and dated statement detailing the circumstances that is leading to this request and submit any documentation supporting those circumstances.

Upon receipt of all required documentation, appeals will be reviewed by the Financial Aid Office to determine if the circumstances comply with the Department of Education's regulations governing special circumstances appeals. During peak processing times, please allow 4 - 6 weeks for processing.

By signing this form,
