

DENAST-306: Dental Assistant Clinical

Course Description:

Students apply skills developed in Dental and General Anatomy, Dental Health Safety, Dental Chair side, Dental Materials, Dental Radiography, and Professionalism in a clinical setting with patients. Emphasizes integration of Career Essentials and basic occupational skills.

Total Credits: 3.00

Course Competencies

- 1. Collect diagnostic and treatment data
- 2. Manage infection and hazard control
- 3. Perform clinical supportive treatments
- 4. Take diagnostic radiographs
- 5. Perform dental laboratory procedures
- 6. Provide patient oral health instruction
- 7. Assist in managing medical emergencies
- 8. Model professional behaviors, ethics, and appearance
- 9. Integrate the core abilities designated by your college into your performance in a professional setting