

SURGT-130: Surgical Skills Application

Course Description:

This course provides a transition from the academic to the clinical setting. Learners integrate the surgical technologist skills as they apply to various surgical procedures.

Total Credits: 2.00

Course Competencies:

- 1. Integrate principles of surgical conscience for various surgical procedures.
- 2. Evaluate surgical team roles.
- 3. Perform preoperative case management for various surgical procedures.
- 4. Perform intraoperative case management for various surgical procedures.
- 5. Perform postoperative case management for various surgical procedures.
- 6. Demonstrate professionalism within the scope of practice.
- 7. Assist with nonsterile duties for various surgical procedures.